

CME/CPD Accreditation

Accreditation Statement and Credit Designation

European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (UEMS/EACCME)

The 33rd Annual Meeting of the European Society of Paediatric and Neonatal Intensive Care is accredited by the European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (EACCME) to provide the following CME activity for medical specialists. The EACCME is an institution of the European Union of Medical Specialists (UEMS): www.uems.eu

The 33rd Annual Meeting of the European Society of Paediatric and Neonatal Intensive Care is designated for a maximum of, or up to, 23 European external CME credits. Each medical specialist should claim only those hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity.

American Medical Association (AMA)

Through an agreement between the European Union of Medical Specialists and the American Medical Association, physicians may convert EACCME credits to an equivalent number of AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Information on the process to convert EACCME credit to AMA credit can be found at <https://www.ama-assn.org/education/ama-pra-credit-system/agreement-european-union-medical-specialties-uems>

Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada

Live educational activities, occurring outside of Canada, recognized by the UEMS-EACCME for ECMEC credits are deemed to be Accredited Group Learning Activities (Section 1) as defined by the Maintenance of Certification Program of The Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada. ## Educational Objectives

After attending this event, participants should be able to:

- Address individual needs in compliance with their Continuous Professional Development (CPD) plan by selecting and participating in sessions that match their specific learning goals and clinical interests.
- Describe the latest developments in pediatric and neonatal intensive care, encompassing both technological advancements and innovative clinical practices.
- Indicate the latest developments in neurocritical care, including diagnostic techniques, management strategies, and therapeutic interventions.
- Discuss current research projects within ESPNIC and enhance opportunities for future collaboration between groups of young researchers to foster advances in pediatric and neonatal intensive care.

- Identify the latest research approaches in the study of pediatric and neonatal intensive care, emphasizing evidence-based practices and outcomes research.
- Exchange ideas and knowledge to promote multidisciplinary collaboration among doctors, nurses, and other allied healthcare professionals in the field of pediatric intensive care.
- Discuss the development of new treatments and technologies in pediatric and neonatal intensive care, with a focus on translating research findings into clinical applications that improve patient outcomes.

Target Audience

ESPNIC 2024 serves as a premier forum for fully qualified medical specialists in pediatric and neonatal intensive care, including neonatologists, pediatric intensive care specialists, and pediatric surgeons, among others. This congress attracts a wide range of senior professionals such as pediatric cardiologists, pulmonologists, and neurologists, who engage in in-depth clinical care and advanced medical practices. The diverse, clinically oriented program enables these specialists to customize their learning experience, ensuring it meets the high standards and varied expertise levels required by the UEMS-EACCME®.
